

JFSC Uniform Policy/Dress Code.

JFSC prides itself on being a professional educational and military institution. The College dress code seeks to protect this professional image.

a. Uniform requirements.

(1) All students are required to bring the primary duty uniform and graduation uniform. Additionally, JAWS students are expected to have the full complement of uniforms required by their Service.

(2) The Commandant may modify the normal dress standards when it makes sense to do so for team building, employee morale, or camaraderie reasons.

(3) The COS and School Directors may designate wearing of any uniform that faculty, staff, and students are required to have for specific events.

b. Dress standards on days when class is in session (except as noted below) are as follows:

	Primary Uniform (Note 1)	Alternate Uniform
Army:	ACU	Class B
Air Force:	ABU/Flight Suit <sup>1</sup>	Short or Long Sleeve Blues (Note 1)
Marines:	MARPAT (Woodland or Desert)	Service B or Service C
Coast Guard:	Operational Dress	Tropical Blue
International Fellows:	BDU equivalent	Class B equivalent
Uniformed Civilians:	BDU equivalent	Class B equivalent
Notes:
1. Faculty, staff, and students may wear the primary or alternate uniform at their discretion unless directed otherwise. Flight suits are authorized in accordance with Service regulations.

c. Civilian standards are as follows:

(1) The male standards consist of a business suit, or trousers with a conservative sport coat, and tie; however, wearing of the jacket for the entire duty day is not necessary. Shirts should be pressed, short or long-sleeved, with no fraying at the collar or cuffs. Spread collar or button-down Oxford is suggested. Boots or dress shoes should be of a good quality with low heel. Facial hair should be well groomed. Accessories may include a ring, watch, tie pin and/or cuff links.

(2) The female standards consist of a conservative business suit (pants or skirt), slacks with blazer, or a conservative dress. Shirts, blouses, or sweaters may be worn. Boots or dress shoes should be of good quality with low to moderate heel. Wear accessories moderately. Women shall avoid low necklines and short hemlines.

(3) Civilian personnel performing technical functions such as installing cable, major office cleaning, or furniture moves or installation, should wear appropriate clothing as approved by their Director/Dean as making good sense due to functionality and safety. The appropriate clothing shall always be in good repair.

(4) Contractor personnel shall wear clothing as approved by their parent organization. Generally, it will be in good taste and in keeping with JFSC policies depending on the duties.

(5) On Fridays, civilian casual is authorized. Men may wear trousers and a long or short-sleeve dress shirt with collar, without tie, or a polo shirt. Shoes may be casual but may not be athletic styles or sandals. Women may wear slacks, skirt, or dress, and sandals with or without hose.

d. Dress standards for graduations are as follows:

(1) Individual school graduations shall apply the following standard:

(d) Joint, Command, Control, and Information Operations School graduations apply the normal standards.

e. Military student and faculty use of civilian attire is authorized as outlined below:

(1) During Offsite Visits. Students and faculty may wear civilian attire (slacks and a long or short-sleeve collared shirt) on the day when an offsite is scheduled.

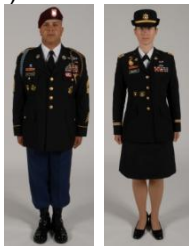

(2) Battlefield Staff Rides. Student and faculty attire for battlefield staff rides (Normandy, Gettysburg, and Yorktown) shall be seasonally appropriate attire.

(3) Role Playing. Students may wear civilian attire when that attire is appropriate for role playing during an exercise.

(4) During normal working hours, when classes are in session (0730 to 1630), athletic attire shall only be worn to/from the locker room and the building exit.

(5) During non-working hours (early/late, weekends, and holidays), military students and faculty may wear appropriate civilian attire when using JFSC facilities.
